Large Objects

CLOB AND BLOB

- When the character column is going to be larger than can fit in the maximum `varchar (255)` a large-object character type is required

- CLOBS – Character Large Object – used to store large amounts of character data

    MySQL implements TEXT instead of CLOB

- BLOB – Binary Large Object – used to store binary data such as images, sound and video